

Roles and Responsibilities for finding funding opportunities

The roles below are responsible for assisting PI and researchers in finding funding opportunities, however final authorization on eligibility will come directly from SRP in collaboration with RED.

Role	Description	Types of Awards	Examples of sponsors
Liaison Analyst	A liaison analysts will be tasked with looking for funding opportunities directly benefiting their department faculty (both junior & senior) and their areas of research.	Federal: Research (R series), Career (F/T series), Research training & fellowship, project/center grants, etc.	CDC, NIH, NSF, DOD, HRSA, NMSS
SRP Pre-Award Analyst	Will forward any received funding announcements to relevant PIs; and will provide assistance in directing PIs to their RED-established Pivot account so that the PI can locate appropriate funding opportunities.	Federal, State & Foundation.	NIH, NMSS, CalMed Force, OSHPD, VOCA
Strategy Position	Strategic planning, implementation management, as well as assisting in identifying programmatic funding opportunities *10-15% of the FTE.	Non-governmental, non-NIH type of funding opportunities	First 5
SOM Central Office Analyst	Individual who will services all of SOM and ensure collaboration between PIs & different departments when it comes to locating funding opportunities.	All grants and contracts. Industry sponsored, Federal including more complex grants.	DOD, NIH-Program & center grant, For profit organizations